RE: RPM032500L0640

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Howard;

I received your letter today regarding the above parcel. In your letter you stated you wanted to appeal your 2016 property value. The deadline for filing your appeal is the 4th Monday in June. This is not a County decision; it is an Idaho State Statue. I have enclosed a copy of Idaho Code 63-501A taxpayer's right to appeal. I understand your frustration pertaining to the short appeal time; however we have to follow the Statue. You will receive your 2017 assessment notice the first week in June. You will have until June 26, 2017 to appeal your value. We will have the appeal forms available on the Valley County website so you do not need to contact our office or come in. Just be sure it is received by this office no later than June 26th.

Please let me know if you have additional questions or concerns.

Respectfully,

June Fullmer

EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENTS

63-501A. Taxpayer's right to appeal. (1) Taxpayers may file an appeal of an assessment or exemption decision with the county board of equalization. An appeal shall be made in writing on a form provided by the county board of equalization or assessor and must identify the taxpayer, the property which is the subject of the appeal and the reason for the appeal. An appeal of an assessment listed on the property roll must be filed on or before the end of the county's normal business hours on the fourth Monday of June. An appeal of an assessment listed on the subsequent property roll must be filed on or before the end of the county's normal business hours on the fourth Monday of November. An appeal of an assessment listed on the missed property roll must be filed on or before the board of equalization adjourns on the day of its January meeting. The board of equalization may consider an appeal only if it is timely filed.

(2) Appeals from the county board of equalization shall be made pursuant to section 63-511, Idaho Code.
